Presentation: Stash Weave-Along with Janet Dawson

Janet Dawson lives in Cape Breton, Nova Scotia. She is a weaver, writer, teacher, fibre lover. She has published in Handwoven and teaches workshops and online classes.

Janet introduced The Stash Weave Along that she and Tien Chiu will be starting on May 23. It will be 4 weeks long and encourages using your stash. The project is to weave a mixed warp twill scarf on a 2, 4, 4+ shaft loom. Janet will focus on the yarns and structure while Tien will guide you through colour and choosing compatible colours for the design. They are also working on developing an online class.

An email will follow with all the links. (This was sent already)

Announcements:

Fibre Camp:

After much consideration, we have decided to postpone Fibre Camp 2020. The camp is closed for the summer and their plans for the fall are uncertain. We are sad and sorry to give up our get together for this year, but have re-scheduled for 2021 September 10-12. We hope that our 2020 teachers will be able to join us and present the workshops we had anticipated. Our website will be updated soon www.fibrecamp.ca.
